REWARDS CHECKING: YOU DO YOU! Early Paychecks, Extra Savings and Higher Earnings

A checking account that actually rewards you just for using it? Yes, please!

Here's what else you get:

Get Your Money Sooner

With early direct deposit, you get your paycheck up to two days earlier than you would if it was a paper check. That means you have more budget flexibility, more control over your money and more opportunities to spend the way you want.

Save Often, Save Easily

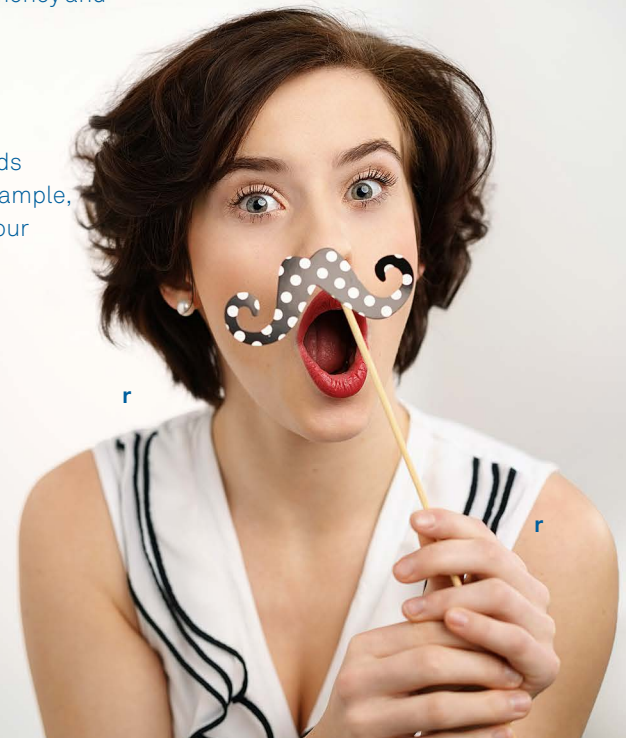

You can actually save money every time you spend it with our Round Up program. Every time you use your AlliedFCU debit card, your transaction automatically rounds up to the next whole dollar and puts the difference in your savings account. For example, a $49.50 purchase will round up to $50 on your debit card, and $0.50 will go into your savings account automatically.

+Plus Points

There's more. Earn points every time you use your debit card. Redeem them for entertainment, travel and more.

*3.05% APY (annual percentage yield) is earned on balances up to $10k. To qualify for the higher rate, the following transactions and activities must post and settle to your Rewards Checking account during each Monthly Qualification Cycle: 1) 15 or more signature based debit card transaction and 2) direct deposit of at least $100. You will earn 0.04% APY on balances above $10k; or 0.04% APY if the qualifications are not met.

AUTO CHECKS SIMPLIFY CAR BUYING

There's no reason anymore to choose the car you want and then wait on your loan to buy it. You also don't want loans from dealerships you're not sure you can trust. AlliedFCU auto loans make car buying quicker and easier with Auto Checks.

Auto Checks are physical checks you receive after pre-approval on your auto loan. Here's how they work:

1. Take the check to any dealership.
2. Choose your car.
3. Write check for final sale amount
4. Drive away with your new or new-to-you car!

AlliedFCU Stocks Little Libraries to

Celebrate Read Across America

AlliedFCU shared its love of reading in March by stocking little libraries in the Arlington-Mansfield area. Little libraries are small book collections usually found in some type of display in neighborhoods or businesses. Anyone may take a book or bring a book to share. The decision to donate books was a celebration of Read Across America Day and part of the Casual for a Cause program. This program enables AlliedFCU employees to pay for dressing casually at work. That money gets donated to a different cause every month. Thank you to our employees for helping the community read freely!
